

World Café

A conversational discussion about the award-winning, best-selling novel set in a future with unsettling parallels to the present.

The Hunger Games, by Suzanne Collins

Tuesday, October 23, 2012

7:00 - 8:15 p.m.

Brown County Central Library

515 Pine Street, Downtown Green Bay (Free parking after 6 p.m.)

You're invited!

At the World Café, you'll gather at tables to participate in small group rounds of conversations with a table host who will introduce questions related to the book but designed to explore different perspectives and ideas. Participants will consider, discuss and share insights in response to the questions. At the end of each round, results from each collaborative table conversation will be shared with the rest of the larger group.

The World Café format is flexible and encourages everyone's participation. It is an opportunity to meet new people, contribute your thinking, exchange perspectives and discover new insights.

Cost is $10.00 per adult; $6.00 per student.

Registration forms are available online at browncountylibrary.org or browncountyreads.org and at all Brown County Libraries.

Send registration form and check, payable to the Friends of the Brown County Library, to:
